1. Six classes of reservists were called up to military training in 1950. They were called up for two terms:

The spring term in May and June 1950
The summer term in July and August 1950

2. The training will take place in the Ceske Budejovice (49/096) and As (M51/P18) areas.
3. At the present time, units of the CSR Army are performing military maneuvers near the western border of Czechoslovakia. Primary purpose of this training is exercise in location and discovery of enemy airborne units and guarding of the frontier.
4. Pioneer and engineering units have barred and blocked the roads along the west border and have erected anti-tank barricades and ditches.
5. Troops and officers taking part in this training were checked carefully for security.
